

Silent Auction to Accompany the 2010 Heart of America Artists' Rendezvous

Because of the excitement about the coming Rendezvous we decided to step it up a notch with a silent auction which will begin a week before the main event. Because the Rendezvous focuses on plein air paintings alone, we wanted to give artists a chance to sell studio or plein air work done apart from the event.

The silent auction will be held inside the conference center at the beautiful Compton Gardens in Bentonville, Arkansas. We expect many patrons of the Rendezvous to attend and view the work as well as residual attendees from other events that will be in the conference center.

This is our first time to do this, and we'd like to keep it small, so the Heart of America Artists' Association (HOAAA) will jury the entries. Commission for sales will be 40% to the host, 60% to the artist. Here are the rules for entry:

Requirements for Entry:

1. You must have registration in the mail or already be registered for the 2010 Heart of America Art Rendezvous. Registration forms are on the Association Blog referenced below.
2. Silent auction entry must be to HOAAA by April 9, 2010.
3. Work should be no larger than 16" x 20", not including the frame (or no more than 72" perimeter).
4. Send a digital file (no larger than 2 MB, please) of the image you would like considered to hoaaa@centurytel.net along with the submission form. If you don't have the ability to email, please mail a print of your work to this address: Silent Auction, Attn: John Lasater, 22707 W. Spring Harbor Rd., Siloam Springs, AR 72761
5. There will be notification of the results sent or emailed by April 19, 2010.

Requirements if Accepted:

1. You need to be able to hand-deliver and check-in your work to the Compton Gardens conference center in Bentonville, Arkansas on Wednesday, May 5, 2010 between 1:00pm and 3:00pm.
2. Work must have a clean presentation. No unframed art unless the work is on wrapped canvas with finished edges.
3. Please bring an easel or table easel to display your work. Tables will be available on site. We may have an alternative for hanging, but that detail is not solid at this point.
4. Works that don't sell need to be picked up at the Compton Gardens conference center in Bentonville, Arkansas on Saturday, May 15, 2010 between 9:00am and 3:00pm.
